2. QUOTATIONS AND ORDERS

The minimum net billable amount is € 150.00.
- c. Any order, proposal of order, job order or request for supply, in any form forwarded to the Seller, constitutes an irrevocable contractual proposal in favour of the Seller for sixty (60) days from the date of receipt by the Seller with freedom of the Seller to accept or not accept the order at the sole discretion of the Seller. Otherwise the Seller assumes no responsibility with regard to any errors or possible misunderstandings. Proposals received through agents, collaborators or procurers, in general, are always understood to be received "subject to approval by the Seller".

Taxes, stamps, customs charges and any other additional charges are not included in the prices. Subject to any exemption, such costs and charges shall be paid by the Purchaser and if paid by the Seller, the amount of such costs and charges shall be invoiced to the Purchaser in addition to the quoted prices. Prices are subject to corrections due to printing errors.
- b. Payment of the Net Price indicated in the invoice must be made without any reduction as indicated in the order confirmation and in the invoice itself.

Furthermore the Seller can in such cases request advance payments or a guarantee deposit.
- e. In the case of payments agreed upon on a deferred basis, if even a single instalment of the price is not paid on time, the Seller may immediately demand the full price with forfeiture of the Purchaser's term even if the conditions set out in Article 1186 of the Italian Civil Code are not met. Alternatively, the Seller may consider the contract as terminated for breach of contract, withholding all sums paid in the meantime by the Purchaser in excess of the amount due as compensation for damages.
- f. Even in the event of notification of complaints due to defects, the Purchaser shall not be entitled to commence or continue the action unless he/she has first fully paid the price within the terms and conditions of the contract. 6. WARRANTY TERMS

- a. The Seller guarantees that the Products are free from defects and conform to the technical specifications declared by the Seller.
- b. With the warranty obligation, the Seller undertakes to replace and/or repair the faulty and/or defective product within the limits of this contract without any further obligation to compensate direct and/or indirect and/or consequential damages deriving to the Purchaser or third parties from defects in the product (by way of example, also in terms of loss of production, damage to property or persons, etc.).
- c. The warranty applies only to products used in the environment and for applications consistent with what was foreseen in the design phase; any improper use is to be considered prohibited.
